PROFILE

Award-winning video editor/producer with extensive experience in editing, filming, and leading creative teams. I've created over 1,000 videos, earning more than 100 million views across multiple platforms, and I'm known for combining speed, quality, and creative flair.

I've produced content for major brands including Red Bull, West Ham, Aston Villa, Porsche, Xbox, Blast Premier, G2, and Gen.G. Currently working at Formula E, creating content for social media and global broadcast.

Creative, organised, and efficient — I bring fresh ideas and always get the job done.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Formula E

Video Editor

March 2024 - Present

- I currently create engaging video content for Formula E's global social media platforms and broadcast channels, aligning with brand tone and race-week schedules across international markets.
- I also mentor a junior editor, providing creative and technical guidance while ensuring consistency and high production standards across all outputs.

Tundra Esports

Global Content Production Team Lead

February 2023 - January 2024

- Created both long-form and short-form video content for Tundra Esports, producing engaging assets across all major social media platforms from teasers to documentaries.
- Supported on-site content production by traveling to events and shoots, often editing and delivering content immediately after filming for rapid turnaround.

Betway Esports

Global Content Production Team Lead

April 2022 - December 2022

- Promoted to Team Lead of Betway's award-winning esports video team in 2022 after three years with the company, overseeing a small international team across the UK and Brazil.
- Managed department output while remaining hands-on with video production, and coordinated with sponsored teams and events to plan and execute content shoots.

Esports Multimedia Producer

January 2019 - April 2022

- Produced over 300 videos for Betway Esports across YouTube, Twitter, and Instagram, as well as content for Betway 88 in China and Thailand — reaching millions of viewers globally.
- Led end-to-end production, including concept development, filming across multiple countries, editing, and delivering upload-ready content.

LG

Regional Ambassador

July 2018 - January 2019

- Managed 43 retail stores across the southern region selling LG products, demonstrating strong organisational and leadership skills.
- Trained and supported hundreds of staff members for different companies on LG product knowledge, showcasing excellent communication and team collaboration abilities.

REFERENCES

Albert-Iulian Nastase, Ex Tundra Esports Production Manager

"Jamie is not only a highly-skilled, passionate and self-sufficient Video Editor, but also a great person to work with. I can wholeheartedly say that he would be a big asset for any company."

David Edwards, Ex Betway Esports Head of Creative

"Jamie would be the first name on the team sheet for any production project wanting to set itself up for success."

Craig Woods, Ex Tundra Esports Marketing Director

Jamie has been a fundamental part to our digital success in 2023, and has lent his creative and strategic mind to our programming strategies towards 2024."
